

INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL FOR BUSINESS LAW STUDIES

Disciplinary Policy for Author(s)

1. If an author(s) of a submitted manuscript, including an article, research paper, or any other document submitted with the purpose of publication in the journal or activities related to the publication in the journal, is found to have indulged in any activity against any policy or guidelines as laid down by the journal or contradicts any information or declaration provided by author(s) for the purpose of submission or publication of the manuscript, then he/she/they shall be banned from submitting any document with the purpose of publication or any activity related to publication, in both ongoing and future publications of the journal. Further, necessary disciplinary actions shall be taken against them.
2. The scope of the above paragraph shall include all the policies of the journal. Any submissions made by the author is accompanied by a declaration that he has read and understood all the guidelines and policies as laid down by the journal and he consents to them. This directly means that the author shall be solely responsible for the violation of any policies of the journal and he/she/they shall bear full responsibility of the same.
3. Nothing in above paragraphs will apply to the submitted manuscript which has not been accepted by the journal for publication.
4. If the author/authors belonging or affiliated to any institution/institutions banned as per the aforementioned paragraph 1, the intimation of the ban shall be made to the concerned institution/institutions.
5. The decision of the journal, with respect to above paragraph 1, 2, 3 and 4, will be given only after considering the principles of equity and natural justice.